Following Mr. Holzer's presentation, a question-and-answer discussion session with Mr. Holzer will be led by Dr. Gary P. Zola, Executive Director of the AJA and Professor of The American Jewish Experience at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion. "As throngs of Jews immigrated to the United States in the 1840s, 1850s and 1860s, Lincoln developed ongoing relationships with this burgeoning minority community through the political world and through his experiences in Illinois, Kentucky and Indiana," said Zola, who has also lectured widely on Lincoln and the Jews throughout the Bicentennial commemoration of Lincoln's birth (2009-2010). "Harold Holzer, whose scholarly writings include fascinating chronicles of the 16th President's special relationship with American Jews, will bring the event audience uniquely fascinating insights into the nuances of Lincoln's connection with the Jewish community. In many respects, Lincoln was the first American President who had personal and professional associations with members of America's Jewish community as he endeavored to understand their struggles and right injustices. These injustices included an inability for Jews to be commissioned as army chaplains during the Civil War and being expelled from Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi by then general U.S. Grant. Perhaps that is why so many Jews with whom he had these interactions felt spiritually connected to Lincoln."

The event is free and open to the public. Because space is limited, RSVPs are requested and will be taken on a first-come/first-served basis. For reservations, please contact Stacey Roper at the American Jewish Archives: 513-487-3000 or by e-mail at: sroper@huc.edu.
