

The JACOB RADER MARCUS CENTER of the AMERICAN JEWISH ARCHIVES

presents:

A DOORWAY TO HEROISM

with author

W. JACK ROMBERG

W. JACK ROMBERG retired as the rabbi of Temple Israel in Tallahassee, FL in 2019. He was ordained in 2001 from Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion. As a rabbi, Romberg was deeply involved in the general community, interfaith programs as well as non-partisan community issues. He was a frequent guest speaker on local TV discussion shows and an NPR radio show. Before retiring, Romberg decided to write a book about his great uncle Richard Stern. A Doorway to Heroism was published in September 2021.

in the AJA's Jewish Foundation of Cincinnati International Learning Center—

Electronic Classroom:

3101 Clifton Ave, Cincinnati OH 45220

★ REGISTER ★

for this event by contacting

Jody Solomon at: j.solomon@huc.edu

DON'T MISS THIS SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY to learn about Richard Stern, who was famously photographed defying Nazi brutes while wearing the Iron Cross he received for his heroism during WWI. A decade later, Stern earned a Silver Medal from the U.S. military for gallant service in WWII.

THIS IS THE COMPELLING STORY OF A MAN WHO REFUSED TO REMAIN SILENT.

"Heroism is not just a particular action. It is also devotion to proper morality. Richard Stern teaches us that."

—THE JERUSALEM POST

